

Raina was always eating takeout or junk food and so was her boyfriend.

Raina, one day suddenly craved for traditional food that her mom used to make at home for her.

She decided that she will learn to cook to food her and her boyfriend at home.

She decided to go online to look for recipes and found a app called for dinner recipes.

Raina clicked on the app and tried the free trial to look at the traditional recipes and decided to make a Korean recipe at home for her and her boyfriend. They both love the food that Raina made from the app recipe. She now loves the website and how the website let her cook more than just her home made food.

Raina can now cook for her and her boyfriend, she is happy and doesn't feel sad about not eating her homemade food.

Juana has a quite busy work schedule as a Clinical pharmacist. She usually finds herself getting takeouts from some Indian restaurant for her Indian in-laws and from a Mexican restaurant for herself as she don't know the recipes for the dishes. So, she is always worried about her family's health.

Her husband Amit could not see her in this situation. So, he downloads an app called Discover Recipes.

Amit watches some videos of recipes of Paneer Chilly, Enchilada, Lasagna and other traditional recipes.

Amit likes all the recipes and sends them to Juana

Juana along with Amit cooks Nuan and Butter Paneer Masala, which was the first time she had prepared an Indian dish. Her in-laws are really impressed with this.

Now, Juana is able to manage both her personal life as well as her professional life. She is no more worried about her family's health.
